

Round Robin

CHALLENGE STATEMENT:

Create a Positioning Statement. A positioning statement describes what you want the world to think about your organization. It should state how you want to be perceived and valued based on what you deliver.

Example: (Who) Bloomingdale’s (What) are fashion focused department stores (For whom) for trend-conscious, upper-middle class shoppers (What Need) looking for high-end, new products. (Against whom or what) Unlike other department stores (What’s Different) Bloomingdale’s provides unique merchandise in a posh, theatrical setting (So) that makes the shopping experience entertaining and memorable.

PROPOSE A MISSION STATEMENT:

(Who):

(What):

(For Whom):

(What Need):

(Against Whom or What):

(What’s Different):

(So): (Capability 1)

(Capability 2)

(Capability 3)

CRITIQUE THE MISSION STATEMENT. POINT OUT THE WEAK PARTS AND EXPLAIN WHY IT IS INADEQUATE:

(Who):

(What):

(For Whom):

(What Need):

(Against Whom or What):

(What’s Different):

(So):

ADDRESS THE CRITIQUE BY EDITING THE EXISTING PROPOSAL:

(Who):

(What):

(For Whom):

(What Need):

(Against Whom or What):

(What’s Different):

(So): (Capability 1)

(Capability 2)

(Capability 3)